GROCERY (CONT.)

Safe Catch tuna - new varieties

Safe Catch prides itself on their high standards for mercury testing. As a result, the trace mercury in their tuna is ten times lower than the FDA limits. This month, we've added pink wild Alaskan salmon and wild ahi (yellowfin) tuna pouches to our lineup.

$3.59

Wild Planet - new options

We've added many new items from this popular seafood brand, including albacore tuna pouches, anchovies in extra virgin olive oil, anchovies in sea salt water, wild sockeye salmon, and skipjack tuna pouches. Wild Planet sources from fishers who practice sustainable pole and line catching that minimizes harmful bycatch.

$2.99-9.99

Jake's StrongGinger

Locally crafted from organic Peruvian ginger and lemon, this simple drink is a health-boosting powerhouse. Just be ready: they don't call it StrongGinger for nothing! Jake's packs a hefty dose of flavor in each bottle.
